- Welcome to Whisky Fringe 2018 -

Another year has flown by and we once again find ourselves celebrating the glorious world of whisky at the stunning surroundings of the Mansfield Traquair.

This is the 18th Whisky Fringe and we're excited to see such a wonderful range of drams on show. As usual, there's a great mix of familiar faces and those joining us for the first time. Please also note that we will be utilising a room downstairs from the main entrance (Stand 32 – Glen Scotia) to offer a new experience for the event. Please follow the signs from the entrance hall.

We would encourage you to seek out those whiskies that you haven't tried before. If it's your first visit to Whisky Fringe, take time to read through the programme and be aware of the Half Time Orange at 4pm. We would also encourage you all to take time to vote for your favourite dram of the day using the voting slips provided. The ballot box is by the front desk and all participants will be entered in the prize draw. Last year's winner of the Spirit of Whisky Fringe Award was the magnificent Glenrothes 2000 Cask 2364.

Food, teas, coffees and soft drinks are available to purchase in the garden (accessed downstairs from the front entrance) – or just inside if the weather is being disagreeable. Please try and take a break during the afternoon and refresh that palate!

Above all, we hope you have a wonderful afternoon sampling some of the finest whiskies around.

Finally, and with much sadness, we learnt earlier this year that a stalwart of all whisky festivals in the UK and someone who had attended almost every day of every Whisky Fringe – Martyn Jenkins – had passed away. Martyn (also known as The Whisky Cyclist) was a genuine enthusiast and a pleasure to see every year in his pink shirts. He will be greatly missed, so please raise a dram to him today – we certainly will.

To ensure maximum enjoyment of your day:

- Make sure you eat before sampling. You can also enjoy some food at the venue.
- Pace your sampling and know the strength of what you're trying.
- Drink plenty of water (refresh your palate, stay hydrated).
- Use the spittoons provided. You don't have to finish every dram.
- If you are in a group please look after each other.
- Please don't be rude. The exhibitors have the right not to serve you.
- Remember to use your £10 off voucher at the RMW event shop.
- Don't forget to vote for your favourite dram to enter the prize draw.

- The Half Time Orange/Whistle -

At 4pm today make sure to listen out for the half time whistle. It is the signal to 'commence pouring' on some very exciting drams.

A number of our exhibitors have kindly agreed to bring along one single bottle of something extra special for you to try, at no extra charge. Stocks are limited and may run out depending on demand. A list of the Half Time whiskies can be found at the RMW Shop (Stand 31). The exhibitors will only be offering these drams from 4.00 pm for a short period of time (approximately 15 minutes) or, simply, as long as the bottle lasts!

You may select only ONE of these special whiskies to sample which can be exchanged for your half time orange token which you receive on arrival.

- A Short Guide to Appreciating Whisky -

It is recommended that you should aim to sample no more than 6 drams (be aware that some drams may be cask strength and above the standard 40% ABV). Always remember to keep yourself well hydrated in between drams. There are lots of water stations placed around the hall to help you with this.

For those still discovering whisky, we have put a few pointers in the program. A 'Staff Favourite' is a whisky that continually rates highly across our employees, and is a great place to start if you want to set a benchmark for a particular distillery. You'll also find a few lines introducing each company and what sort of whisky they make, so it's worth having an overall read of the programme before sampling. We'd recommend coming with a plan ready to help you navigate your route around the room!

- Nosing and tasting -

Appreciating a whisky involves nosing it just as much as actually tasting it; the Snifter glass provided is the best glass for this purpose. First gently nose the dram. What aromas can you distinguish? There may be any number of the following and more; Phenols (peat and smoke) Esters (fruit or solvent) Floral (grass and flowers) Cereal (malty, yeasty) Wine (sherry and nutty) Woody (vanilla and toast) Sulphur (gas and rubber) Feints (tobacco and leather).

Take a little sip into your mouth, swirl it around and concentrate on the sensations. There are three elements to look out for if you really want to evaluate the whisky. The 'taste' itself is perhaps the most obvious element - does the whisky taste sweet, bitter, salty or sour? The two other elements are the 'mouth feel', which occurs before the whisky is swallowed - is the whisky astringent, drying, fizzy, mouth watering? Finally there is the 'finish' of the whisky - does it leave an aftertaste; how long does the flavour last for?

Next, add a drop of water. The strength of the alcohol might be a bit too powerful – so a little water will stop the strength of the whisky anaesthetising your senses and allow you to perceive more flavours. Add a little water at a time to get the right dilution. Individual tastes will vary and each whisky is different so experiment with what you prefer.

Take a bit of time before moving onto a new whisky, to allow your taste buds to recover. There is water available throughout the hall, as well as oatcakes on all stands to help you cleanse your palate.

- Whiskies & Stands -

Berry Brothers & Rudd (Stand 1)

It feels weird to describe Berry Brothers as a 'rising star' as they've been going since the late Mesolithic era, but sometimes it takes a new person to shake things up. Jonny is the man to do this, with his incredibly picky standards of single cask selection.

Daftmill Distillery (Stand 2)

Fife farmer Francis Cuthbert has been coming to Whisky Fringe as a punter for years, and we pestered him on an annual basis ("SELL US WHISKY!") Finally, the day has come and we couldn't be more proud that he chose this as their only UK festival this year.

Distell International (Stand 4)

Bain's South African whisky has been a secret favourite of a few of our staff up at the shop, but until recently it's been hard to get. We will be enjoying the ongoing confusion over how to pronounce Bunnahabhain Stiueireadair.
